Hasta que te encuentre/Until I Find You (Spanish Edition) By John Irving

In 1969, Jack Burns travels with his mother Alice, to the different seaports of the North and the Baltic seas in search of Jack's father, who abandoned Alice when she was pregnant. They get to know the most sordid environments of Copenhagen, Amsterdam, Oslo, Helsinki, and Stockholm, and finally return to Canada, where Jack receives his education. When he becomes an actor, famous after winning an Oscar in the year 2000, he will set out for Europe again, this time traveling alone, attracted by the mystery of his unknown father. La undécima novela de John Irving, de marcados tintes autobiográficos, desarrolla con brillantez temas que han atraído desde siempre a Irving, y que ahora aborda en toda su complejidad: la orfandad, la búsqueda del padre y la influencia del paso del tiempo en los personajes.
