When Dreams are Calling By Carol Vorvain

There is no greater fear than the fear of change and no greater joy than overcoming it.

Inspired by a true story, When Dreams are Calling is a transformational journey through five continents, seven countries that will redefine your idea of courage while making you laugh all the way.

The main character, Dora, is a witty young woman who chases her dreams across continents, from Europe to America, then to Asia, and finally, to the far away shores of Australia. We see the changes she goes through, the price she pays for following her dreams, but also the rewards she gets on the way. Her life is a roller coaster and her plan is nothing more than the confidence that everything will work out for the best. The story is filled with magical words of wisdom that will inspire and delight you, while making you reflect on the beauty of friendship, lust, love and kindness. "Words have power, dreams have power, we have power" is the motif which echoes all through this enthralling novel that bursts with optimism.

Editorial Review

Review

This is not a book. It is not a story, even. Reading When Dreams are Calling is an experience.

Vorvain has given Dora a witty and humorous voice which means we are constantly engaged and enthralled by her stories and her meaningful lessons she has learned about life, love and happiness. Vorvain completes our experience by handing the wheel over : "Now the question is what will you do when dreams are calling. Will you pick up?"

To me, Vorvain's story of Dora is the sound of a bell so longed for; it is time to pick it up.

-- Tracie Pascoe-Lark, Australia Times Magazine

A very enjoyable read full of fun, anecdotes and references to far away and exciting places. The author clearly enjoyed writing this book and it reads as an interesting travel book but more importantly as a journey through life full of lessons. --Sonia Campbell-Gillies "Best Selling Author"

From the Back Cover

Not a travelogue but a journey. Not a comedy but a joy. Not a self-help book but a lesson. A book you won't forget.
