The Maltese Cross: An International Mystery By Fritz Galt

Young banker Johnny Blade must find a stolen fortune in Europe. He goes there with confidence, until he stumbles into the largest financial mess Europe has faced since the Second World War. To make matters worse, murder and deceit follow him every step of the way. A spicy love affair complicates the levels of deceit, but opens the shadowy back doors of international finance. The more he learns, the more mysterious and dangerous the mission becomes, until his very life is on the line.
