Review

"Roger Stern not only [tells] the story of Superman's death and resurrection but also the entire Post-Crisis history of the Man of Steel, his world and his supporting characters. Stern breaks everything down into a manageable, easily digestible form. It's all there. Sure he makes some major and minor tweaks to the overall story but they all work for this version of the tale. I really can't say enough good things about this book. If you have only read the comic-book version of the Death and Return you owe it to yourself to read this version as well." --Michael Bailey, fortressofbaileytude.com

"Stern is a highly underrated writer. His novelization of the Death of Superman showed that a single writer on that storyline could have made it a more effective story." -- Jeff Nettelton

"Stern doesn't only write action/adventure, he writes real, compelling characters." -- Thomas Piperson

"The best attribute in Roger Stern's work is his heart. His stories tend to be rooted in the decency of heroes -- his heroes have HEART." -- Brian Cronin

"A thoroughly entertaining ride."--The Tampa Tribune And Times.
